

SUBJECT CARD

SUBJECT		FACULTY
LEVEL OF STUDIES, YEAR, SEMESTER	ECTS POINTS	TOTAL NUMBER OF HOURS, WEEKS<sup>1</sup>
TYPE OF SUBJECT<sup>2</sup>	TEACHING METHODS<sup>3</sup>	LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION
THE RESULTS OF STUDY<sup>4</sup>
SYLLABUS CONTENT<sup>5</sup>
LECTURES 1. 2. ... CLASSES 1. 2. ...
METHODS OF ASSESSMENT<sup>6</sup>
1. 2. ...
BASIC AND SUPPLEMENTARY LITERATURE
1. 2. ...

<sup>1</sup> Total and weekly number of hours, total number of weeks.

<sup>2</sup> Lectures, classes, seminars, laboratories, work placement, clinical internship.

<sup>3</sup> Obligatory, optional (limited and discretionary choice).

<sup>4</sup> The results of study describe the scope of student's knowledge, understanding and skills after completing the course, in terms of comprehension, skills and competence. Knowledge is the result of absorbing, facts, rules, theory and practice through learning. Skill –ability, to apply the knowledge in order to execute tasks and solve problems. Competence – proven ability to apply the knowledge, skills and personal abilities, social or methodological, in the workplace or during students in professional and personal career.

<sup>5</sup> Clear and concise description of a course (lecture/classes programme).

<sup>6</sup> The description of student's work assessment (oral/written examination, tests, essay, paper, term paper, practical classes, continuous assessment).